LOS ANGELES DAILY TIMES.

VOL. X---NO. 58. LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 7, 1886. FIVE CENTS.

The Times.

Office—Temple, Main and New High.

KANSAS has got at it again—the cyclone.

THE Grand Army had another glorious day in 'Frisco yesterday.

GENERAL FAIRCHILD has but one arm. The other he gave to the Republic.

THE Cutting case is losing its edge. So is Cleveland's administration.

THE Los Angeles boom continues to boom on a high-tide and high-pressure scale.

LUCKY BALDWIN is out with a racing challenge, addressed to Ben Ali's backers.

"CUMP" SHERMAN and "Black Jack" Logan are the heroes of the hour in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO is aflame with a grand enthusiasm. Los Angeles is ready for the patriotic torch.

A LOT of Central American States are yearning for annexation to Mexico. They better hadn't.

GENERAL LUCIUS FAIRCHILD, Commander-in-Chief, is good enough. We salute you, comrade!

MRS. WILBUR F. STOREY, of Chicago, is on top in the famous fight over her husband's will. At least one of the Mrs. Storeys is.

PREPARE for "Los Angeles Day!" Prepare for the coming of the Grand Army men to Los Angeles! Prepare for a great big time! It is coming!

MATTHEW ARNOLD "strikes it" in what he says about American sympathy for Gladstone and his Irish policy. There are a good many demagogues in America.

SENATOR DEL VALLE'S bill declaring innavigable streams the property of the State has been reported favorably from the Committee on Irrigation. Taylor, Spencer and Saxe sent up a minority report.

A NEW deal will be had in some of the local offices. Over-confident manipulators, who think they have got it all "set up" for themselves or their kind, may find themselves on their backs one of these fine days.

GEN. SHERMAN made an interesting speech in the encampment yesterday, reverting to our various wars, to the war of the Rebellion, to the conquest of California, and to the benefits accruing therefrom. The old hero is full of reminiscence, wisdom and perennial patriotism, and always entertaining.

GEN. SAM BACKUS, of San Francisco, was yesterday elected Senior Vice-Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army. It was Sam who edited that red-headed circular into the A. & P. train en route across Arizona. "Don't stop en route, especially at Los Angeles."

REPUBLICAN citizens who want to see local party affairs managed with decency, credit and success, should take a hand in local politics before it is too late to prevent irretrievable damage being done by self-constituted managers and bad men. Republicans who stand still and permit themselves to be bound hand and foot politically are not manly and self-respecting men.

IT is reported from Washington that the President contemplates the appointment of Judge John D. Bicknell, of Los Angeles, to the bench of the new United States District Court for the Southern District of California, which is to be established here under the bill just passed by Congress. The selection, if made, will be a good one. Judge Bicknell is a lawyer of ability and experience, and a man of character and integrity, enjoying the respect of his fellow-citizens. He has lived in this community many years, and has built up a large practice. He is the well-known senior partner in the leading law firm of Bicknell & White.

The establishment here of this new Federal Court, with Judge Bicknell (or any other equally good jurist) at its head, will be a measure of much importance and advantage to Southern California.

THE Grand Encampment at San Francisco yesterday elected a new Commander-in-Chief for the Grand Army of the Republic in the person of that gallant comrade, General Lucius Fairchild, of Wisconsin. It is a good selection. General Fairchild served with gallantry and distinction in the war for the Union. He commanded a Wisconsin regiment, participated in many important engagements, lost an arm in battle, and rose to the rank of brigadier-general. In 1864 he was elected Governor of Wisconsin; in 1874 he was U. S. Consul in England (at Liverpool, we believe); in 1878 he was U. S. Consul in France. He was delegate to the National Convention of Soldiers and Sailors which assembled at Chicago in 1868, and first nominated Gen. Grant for the Presidency. He is an Ohio man, born in 1831.

DONAHUE'S DEATH.

Mysterious Tragedy on the Ventura Stage Line.

A rider got in at midnight from Eudocino, 18 miles west from here, the first station on the Ventura stage line, bringing sensational news. Pat Donahue has had charge of the stage company's stock at Eudocino. Yesterday afternoon he started out with his gun to get some rabbits. He did not come back to supper; and finally a searching party was organized. Donahue was found dead in a patch of prickly-pear. The messenger who came in had not stopped to examine the body at all; and did not even know whether Donahue died by a gunshot wound. It is supposed, however, that he accidentally shot himself. The Coroner was notified by telephone, and will hold an inquest to-day, whence particulars may be expected.

An Able Democrat.

A. F. Mackay has sued out an injunction to prevent the Board of Education from paying a salary to its clerk. This will bring about what the Board desires—namely, a decision whether a salary can legally be paid for the hard work of the clerk.

The First of the Season.

McPherson Brothers, of McPherson, near Orange, have just shipped 450 boxes of forty pounds each of fresh Muscat grapes to Chicago. This is the first carload shipment of the season.

THE ENCAMPMENT.

Ex-Gov Fairchild of Wisconsin Elected

COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THE G. A. R.

Gen. S. W. Backus Chosen Senior Vice-Commander-in-Chief—How the Veterans are Entertained.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6.—At the third day's session of the National Encampment to-day, the Committee on Resolutions submitted a report denouncing polygamy, and recommending that Congress be asked to pass such laws as will eradicate the evil from the country.

A feature of the afternoon session was a discussion over the Service Pension bill. The Department of Massachusetts offered a resolution favoring the passage by Congress of the Levering bill, which provides for a pension of $8 per month to every surviving soldier and sailor of the war, whether disabled or not. The Committee on Resolutions, to whom the matter was referred, reported adversely. Mr. Bennett, of Indiana, submitted a minority report favoring the measure.

A vote was first taken on the latter and it was defeated by 327 to 86.

The majority report was then adopted.

Several efforts were made during the day to bring up the consideration of the place of the next encampment, but without avail.

GEN. SHERMAN'S SPEECH.

During the proceedings Gen. Sherman read an address. He spoke of the origin of the order and of the part the members had taken in the civil war, and then said:

"Men who have only engaged in a single battle or a single campaign are apt to dwell on it as the only one ever fought, and many of us are apt to assume that our war was the only conflict of arms worthy of record. Others have preceded us and others will succeed us. We now, with a retrospect of only twenty-one years, realize that the civil war in America was but a single step in the progress of the world to a newer and higher civilization. The revolutionary war demonstrated that the thirteen colonies planted by Europe on the coast of America had attained manhood, and had a natural right to assume all its functions. The war of 1812 demonstrated that this new nation was capable of defending itself, not only within its own domains but on the high seas and everywhere. Then the Mexican war of 1846-7 demonstrated that our race and institutions must reach from ocean to ocean, from the lakes to the gulf, with ample room for development; and finally the civil war demonstrated that we, its citizens, could defend the Government against the greatest of all enemies—ourselves."

He then gave an interesting account of the causes which led to the Mexican war and of the subsequent history of that war and the conquest of California by the United States, with the parts played by Gen. Fremont, Commodore Sloat and others. Speaking of his own share in the operations, he told how the battery to which he was attached was sent around the "Horn," leaving New York July 14, 1846, and arriving at Monterey on the 29th of January, 1847. He compared the condition of California at that time with its present prosperity, and then, reverting to the benefits of the civil war, closed as follows:

"You, my beloved comrades of the war of 1861-65, have abundant reason for your faith in the integrity and security of this new Union, bound together in harmony by rivers and mountains and by bands of steel, each State controlling its own property and interests, with a strong government over all. Yet, in your conventions and feasts, you can well spare some words of cheer to your older comrades of the Mexican war, who did so much to enlarge the national domain and make possible the glorious work you afterwards so thoroughly accomplished. We cannot expect to tarry long to enjoy the fruits of our labor, but untold generations of intelligent men and beautiful women will be here to protect, defend and maintain these conquests; and, meantime, we have the right to be proud and content that in our day and generation we have largely contributed to build up and strengthen the fabric of government fashioned by our fathers, sanctified by the great name of Washington, made doubly precious by the noble virtues of our martyred Lincoln, and crowned by the achievements of our comrade Grant."

TO MEET NEXT YEAR IN ST. LOUIS.

In the evening session St. Louis was selected as the place of the next National Encampment, by a vote of 213 to 171 for Nashville.

FAIRCHILD CHOSEN COMMANDER-IN CHIEF.

The Encampment then proceeded to the election of a Commander-in-Chief. Corporal Tanner, of New York, was proposed by G. H. Patch, of Massachusetts, after which Lucius Fairchild, of Wisconsin, John Burst, of Illinois, John P. Rea, of Minnesota, John A. Reynolds, of New York, were placed in nomination, with the following result:

Whole number of votes cast, 441; necessary to a choice, 222; Tanner, 113; Fairchild, 158; Burt 71; Reynolds, 37; Rea, 62. Reynolds withdrew in favor of Fairchild, and a second ballot was proceeded with.

When 377 votes had been cast on the second ballot it was shown that Fairchild had received 229, or 7 more than were necessary to elect. A motion was then made to make his election unanimous. It was carried.

OTHER OFFICERS CHOSEN.

Gen. S. W. Backus, of San Francisco, was unanimously elected Senior Vice-Commander-in-Chief.

Col. Edgar Allen, of Richmond, Va., was elected Junior Vice-Commander-in-Chief; Dr. A. S. Evarts, of Colorado, Surgeon General; Rev. Thomas C. Warren, of Chattanooga, Chaplain.

There were no further proceedings of importance and the Encampment adjourned sine die.

WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS.

Officers Elected—A Reception to the G. A. R. Comrades.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6.—Mrs. Elizabeth d'A. Kinne, of San Francisco, was to-day elected National President of the Woman's Relief Corps, and Mrs. Sarah Nichols, of New York, Senior Vice President.

RECEPTION AT METROPOLITAN TEMPLE.

The National Convention of the Woman's Relief Corps gave a reception to-night to members of the G. A. R. at Metropolitan Temple. The interior was handsomely decorated, and was crowded to the doors at an early hour. On the stage were many beautiful floral pieces representing Grand Army emblems. Among the speakers were Mrs. E. d'A. Kinne, elected National President of the corps to-day; Mrs. Sarah A. Fuller, Commander-in-Chief Burdette, Gen. Sherman, Gen. Logan, Gov. Stoneman and Mayor Bartlett.

ENCAMPMENT NOTES.

A Reception to Mrs. Logan—The Los Angeles Delegation.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6.—A general reception was tendered Mrs. John A. Logan, in the parlors of the Occidental Hotel, this evening, by the ladies of San Francisco and Department of California. Accompanying Mrs. Logan were Mrs. Alger and daughter, Mrs. Burdette, Miss Lizzie Sherman and other distinguished ladies. Many thousands of people poured into the parlors for several hours, and were most cordially received.

GOING THE ROUNDS.

The Los Angeles, San Diego and San Bernardino Posts to day visited the Iowa, Illinois, Maine, Michigan and other department headquarters, headed by a band, and also visited the press headquarters in the Grand hotel. During the round of visits speeches were made by H. Z. Osborne, of Los Angeles, and Mr. Mosher, the poet. The visitors brought fruit to the various headquarters, and also serenaded the eastern visitors.

NEW YORK INIQUITY.

How Hubert O. Thompson Did Up Maurice B. Flynn.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—The examination by Mayor Grace into the charges made against Commissioner Squire was continued to-day. A witness named Gilbert M. Spear, Jr., said he met Hubert O. Thompson July 19. Thompson called at witness's office and held a conversation with him. From there he went to the office of Mayor Grace in Hanover square. "Before I went," said the witness, "Thompson showed me a letter" [Letter of December 26th shown and identified. It will be found on the editorial page of this morning's TIMES.]

"Did he tell you where he got the letter?"

Witness—"He told me he had taken it from a box in the Safe Deposit Company."

"After he had shown this letter to you and left your office, did he come back?"

"After he had shown me the letter, he asked me to read it. I did so, and then went to Mayor Grace's office with him. We there met Mayor Grace an Chamberlain Ivins. I remained in the outer office, while the others retired to the inner office. When Thompson came out, I asked him if he had given the letter up, and he said that he had. He then got into his coupe and drove away."

"Do you know Maurice B. Flynn?"

"I do. After Thompson died I had a conversation with Mr. Flynn. It was on Tuesday or perhaps on Monday that I met him at Twenty-fourth street, accidentally. He told me that there was a certain paper that belonged to him, and which Thompson had in his safe, and he would like to get it. I told him that I did not think that it was there or in the safe."

"To what paper did he refer?"

"I inferred that he referred to that letter."

The signature was identified by August Lyon and D. Louber Smith. The letter of December 27, 1884, to Maurice B. Flynn from Squire, was then submitted. The letter is the one in which Squire agrees to allow Flynn to make all the appointments in the Department of Public Works.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—A rumor was circulated to-day to the effect that Rollin M. Squire and Maurice B. Flynn are to be arrested on criminal charges made to the District Attorney. It is said that already bench warrants, signed by Judge Cowing, are in the hands of detectives. Judge Cowing refused to speak about the report, saying that it was something he was not at liberty to either affirm or deny.

WASHINGTON.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6.—A special to the Bulletin from Washington says: It is understood that the President will appoint John D. Bicknell, of Los Angeles, Judge of the new Southern District.

EXTRADITION TREATY WITH JAPAN.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—An extradition treaty with Japan has been signed by the President. Among the offenses made extraditable are murder and manslaughter, counterfeiting, forgery, embezzlement, grand larceny, burglary, perjury, rape, arson and piracy.

TO ATTEND TILDEN'S FUNERAL.

The President, Secretary Endicott and Private Secretary Lamont left to-night for New York to attend the funeral of Tilden.

A Michigan Town Burned.

DETROIT, Aug. 6.—A special says: A fire originating in the Mancelona House, of Mancelona, Mich., spread over the entire town, destroying the business portion. Seventy-five buildings were burned, including the postoffice, bank and two newspaper offices. The loss is not given, but will be very heavy. The fire was uncontrollable from the start, owing to inadequate water supply.

A Californian's Big Billiards.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—Harvey McKenna, the San Francisco billiardist, made the best run on record at Maurice Daly's room on lower Broadway, yesterday. He was playing an amateur at the odds of 1000 or no count, at straight rail billiards. He soon got the balls together on the rail and continued playing until he made 2000 points. McKenna is considered a wonder here.

AMUSEMENTS.

MODJESKA AS CAMILLE.—On the modern stage every actress who aspires to be known as "emotional" must graduate in the character of Dumas's immoral heroine, and her success is considered complete if she can depict the advancing stages of consumption through the different acts of the play, culminating in the hideous death which ends the ill-starred career of the courtesan, and terminates the one pure passion of a blameful life. Yet, and what fault one may with the motive of the piece, demonstrate as clearly as possible its false, perverting tendency, and decline as loudly as one can against its gilded nastiness; there yet remains the fact of its popularity, which is owing, doubtless, as much to the undoubted dramatic skill displayed in its construction as to the suggestiveness of its leading theme.

In assuming the leading character, Madame Modjeska does what every other artiste who aspires to a leading place in emotional roles is expected to do, and her effort last night was one of the most powerful and effective ever given of the part. That she depicts the Lady of the Camelias as intended by Dumas, fils, cannot be allowed. Modjeska makes of her a creation too cold, too pure and gentle for the half-world in which she moves; and that she fails in even suggesting a participation in the worst part of the life of her companions is her best success. She gives instead an idealized picture, crowned with sweetness, very lovable, unhappy, the victim of circumstances, and meeting an undeserved fate with becoming resignation. Such a picture cannot be gazed upon without emotion; and when the climax of her fate was reached, there were but few in the large audience who could restrain a tear.

The other members of the company appeared to better advantage than usual, being free from the trammels of blank verse, and having the privilege of wearing the clothes of the nineteenth century. There was altogether less of constraint and awkwardness in the stage grouping than has been conspicuous on previous evenings, and Maurice Barrymore, as "Armand," appeared to find a part which was more congenial to him than those he has hitherto assumed here, for he woke up and gained applause for some quite energetic acting. If he would study his delivery and articulation with more care, correct himself of that singular explosive utterance which is so great a detriment, and acquire the ability to speak in rapid passages, so that his lines could be understood, he might with his exceptional physical advantages become one of the leading actors of the day.

W. H. Crompton, as "Duval, pere," scored another success, and Owen Fawcett, as "Gaston," was very natural and pleasing.

To-day at the matinee, As You Like It; and in the evening, at Madame Modjeska's benefit and last appearance, Shakspeare's Twelfth Night will be presented.

BAIRD'S MAMMOTH MINSTRELS.—This company promises a treat in the line of minstrelsy. The Santa Rosa News, of July 25th, in speaking of their performance, says:

"Our Athenæum never held a more satisfied and better entertained audience than last evening, when Baird's Minstrels and Ball Ringers occupied the boards. The old saws seemed to have been worn out, and they came to us with new songs, dances and jokes, and our people were happy. The entertainment was excellent, but especial mention is due to Nathan Carl's solos, The Leech Brothers, with their banjos, are as original as Nelse Seymour was years ago, and James Green captured the gallery completely. Santa Rosa is ready to receive the whole company again as soon as it comes within their route."

SACRAMENTO.

The Assembly Committee Begins the Investigation

OF CHARGES AGAINST THE JUSTICES.

Morrison and Sharpstein Deny the Committee's Jurisdiction—Proceedings in Senate and Assembly.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

SACRAMENTO, August 6.—At a meeting of the Senate Committee on Constitutional amendments, this morning, Senator Reddy explained his bill providing for the condemnation of riparian rights, the acquisition of waters of natural streams by the State, and the formation of irrigation districts. He maintained that the only way to solve the water difficulty is by the system of law as it has been declared by the Supreme Court.

Senator McClure opposed Mr. Reddy's scheme. No action was taken.

TERRY'S CHARGES.

The Morrison-Sharpstein Investigation Begun.

SACRAMENTO, August 6.—The Assembly Committee appointed to investigate the charges made by ex-Judge Terry against Chief Justice Morrison and Justice Sharpstein, commenced its labors to-day. Chairman Morris called the committee to order. Judge Terry was present. L. B. Mezner appeared as counsel for the Justices. He submitted a joint letter from Chief Justice Morrison and Justice Sharpstein. The letter was addressed to Speaker Parks, and acknowledged the receipt of the letter requiring their attendance before the committee. The Justices in their letter recognized fully the power of the two Houses of the Legislature to remove Judges of the Supreme Court, but declared that such power could only be taken for adequate cause, and after full opportunity had been afforded them of being heard in their defense before the two Houses, in which the sole power is vested. They refused to recognize that such power could be delegated to a committee. The letter concludes by stating that their refusal to recognize the committee is not for the purpose of obstructing the legitimate exercise of the power of the Legislature, but rather a desire to protect the independence of the judiciary.

Assemblyman McGlashan moved that the reply be spread upon the minutes, and that the hearing be proceeded with. So ordered.

Several witnesses were then called, Judge Terry acting as Prosecuting Attorney in answer to the question whether any opinion had been written by Justices Morrison and Sharpstein between May 26th of this year and the present date, Deputy Clerk Paulsell, of the Supreme Court, answered "No."

Judge Cope said that Morrison had suffered for some time from an attack of paralysis, but at the present time his mind was as good as it ever was. He both wrote and walked with his usual facility.

The committee adjourned until to-morrow.

Mr. Morris introduced two amendments to Section 17, Article VI of the Constitution. The first was that the salaries of Supreme Justices and Superior Judges be $10,000 and $4000 respectively. The other provides that when the Supreme or Superior Judges become incapacitated they may be retired on half-pay.

Mr. Heath moved that the rules be suspended and the Edwards bill be read for the first time. Carried.

Adjourned to Monday next.

Another Cyclone in Kansas.

TOPEKA, Aug. 6.—A telegram received here, last evening, stated that a cyclone struck the town of Hartland, and demolished twenty houses, and did great damage to crops. Sixteen cars were blown from the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé tracks, and telegraph wires were prostrated for two miles west of the town. The extent of the damage is not yet learned. The storm struck other towns in the vicinity of Hartland, but, the wires being down, its effects cannot be learned.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 6.—The Commercio Del Valle, published in this city, prints a letter in its last issue from its correspondent in the City of Mexico, to the effect that the Presidents and ex-Presidents of the Central American Republics of Salvador, Nicaragua, Honduras, Costa Rica and Guatemala are now in that city arranging a plan for the union of these States in one confederation, with the ultimate view of annexing them to Mexico.

Big Blaze at Phœnix.

MATTHEW ARNOLD.

His Opinion of American Sympathy with Gladstone.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—Matthew Arnold, who is in America, publishes a letter in the London Times, in which he says:

"I suppose there is no country in the world where Gladstone's favor is stronger than in the United States. Yet, even there, if you weigh, instead of count, opinion, the balance is opposed to his Irish policy. The main motives Americans have for sympathy with Gladstone is the temptation to please the Irish. Weight of opinion is not that of the general public, who yield to the temptation, but that of men who resist it and look deeper. Nevertheless, Americans, one and all, sincerely believe that the Irish ought to have control of their own local affairs. Salisbury must recognize this. If he merely tries to keep order and let things drift, he will lose a great opportunity. If he produces a good scheme of local government, he will probably secure Gladstone's support for it."

Funds for Parnell.

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 6.—Dr. O'Reilly this morning cabled to the receiver of the Irish Parliament fund the following:

"Parnell, House of Commons, London: I have this day transmitted to the trustees $60,000. The League in America relaxes no effort and knows no dismay.

O'REILLY."

Held for Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6.—Patrick E. Mullen, who killed young Collins two weeks ago, while the latter was attempting to collect a balance due on a bill, was held to answer on a charge of murder to-day by Judge Lawlor, with bonds fixed at $20,000.

Accident to a Steamer.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—The steamer State of Alabama reports that, on August 4th, she spoke the steamer Werra, with her shaft broken and in tow of a Monarch Line steamer, making for Boston harbor. She reported all well on board.

DITCHED.

Terrible Accident to a Southern Pacific Freight, Thursday.

There was a terrible accident on the Southern Pacific railroad, Thursday, all information as to which has been kept very quiet by the powers that be, in accordance with the accepted railroad policy. It will be remembered that for the last few days the trains from the East have been put back from five to fifteen hours daily by washouts near Volcano Springs, in the desert, this side of Yuma. The track was repaired hastily, to permit the passage of important trains, and the ballast thus dumped in was makeshift, rather than permanent. At 1:15 Thursday afternoon a freight train was picking its way along three miles this side of Flowing Well, and seven miles from Volcano Springs. As the locomotive struck one of the patched-up pieces of track, the track gave way on one side, canting her down. As she came up, she was off the rails; and the impetus of the train behind shoved her off at right angles to the rails, but still right side up. In this wrecking, the "deck" or floor of the engine cab collapsed, and the ill-fated occupants of the cab went down amid the machinery, while the scalding steam began to fly about them. Joe Oman, the athletic and handsome engineer, had his left leg and left arm broken. Walter Hart, the fireman, had his right foot fearfully crushed. By strange good fortune, however, they were not scalded by the escaping steam—a fortune for which they feel profoundly happy. The injured men were brought in to their homes as soon as possible, and given every care.

A TIMES representative yesterday called upon Mr. Oman at his home in the small brick house back of 738 San Fernando street. The sufferer was keeping a stiff upper lip and bearing like a man the torture of his broken arm. He said the broken leg had not yet begun to trouble him. In spite of his agony, he thought he had had the biggest luck in the world to escape alive; and he was right.

'RAH FOR OUR SIDE.

The Los Angeles Nine Wins a Big Victory.

After all their successes on the way north, it was expected that the Los Angeles Base Ball Club would fall a victim to the prowess of the Californias, of San Francisco, with whom they crossed bats yesterday. But the Southern champions were "right there," and vanquished the Californias by the handsome score of 7 to 5, as reported by a private dispatch last night.

In Onion There Is Strength.

James Burgess, of Garden Grove, has erected upon the TIMES table a silver-skin onion measuring two feet around the waist, and weighing four pounds and a half. It has had no rain or irrigation since last April. No wonder everybody wants to get to Southern California.

Opinions which Apparently are Influenced More by the Pocket than by Patriotism—The Mexican Press.

Associated Press Dispatches to the Times.

CITY OF MEXICO (via Galveston), August 6.—The tone of the press of the capital has sensibly moderated in regard to the Cutting affair, and the Liberal organ of President Diaz deals with the matter in a reasonable spirit. The general tone of comment among leading American citizens is very moderate, and it is generally believed, judging from the evidence that has reached here, that Cutting is amenable for offenses committed on both sides of the border.

CITY OF MEXICO (via Galveston), Aug. 6.—The Cutting case is still uppermost. A reporter visited some of the American residents to get their views to-day. Neither Minister Jackson nor Consul-General Porch felt at liberty to say anything for publication.

The General Superintendent of the Mexican Central Railway said he was sorry that so much trouble had arisen from a petty quarrel between Cutting and Medina.

The General Manager of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, Mr. Hunter, said he considered it a matter of little importance. He thought it highly unjust for American papers to assert that there was no protection in Mexico for American citizens.

Charles L. Seger, publisher of the Mexican Financier, said: "I do not think our Government or the people at home realize the disagreeable and even dangerous position in which the business interests of Americans living here are placed by the conduct of an adventurer on the border who tries to use the American flag to protect him in order to obtain a little notoriety."

Several other gentlemen declared that they did not consider the matter a fit subject for diplomatic interference. Cutting was not denied any legal protection guaranteed to Mexicans under similar circumstances, and by his refusal to recognize the authority of the court he himself prevented due consideration of the question of jurisdiction.

FOREIGN NOTES.

More Irish Riots—Hicks-Beach Shows his Hand.

BELFAST, Aug. 5.—While 500 workmen were going home this evening a bottle was thrown among them from a window. The workmen retaliated with iron bolts, and a furious tumult ensued. The police and soldiers hastened to the scene and charged the rioters, but without dispersing them. The police then fired upon the crowd and severely wounded seven persons.

HICKS-BEACH THREATENS COERCION.

DUBLIN, Aug. 6.—Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, Chief Secretary for Ireland, gave an audience to-day to Mayor Harland, of Belfast, with reference to the enforcement of strong repressive measures in that city. It is expected that a proclamation will be issued in Belfast forthwith.

BELFAST, Aug. 6.—The city is placarded with a proclamation by the Mayor forbidding assemblages in the streets, threatening all who attempt to form them and all who participate in them with arrest, and calling upon all law-abiding citizens to assist the police in suppressing disorder wherever it may occur in the city.

THE PARLIAMENTARY QUESTION.

LONDON, Aug. 6.—The government has not yet decided to call an autumn session of Parliament. The question will be discussed by the Cabinet next week.

Hanged.

GALLATIN, Mo., Aug. 6.—John F. Smith was hanged here to-day, for murder. He ascended the scaffold with firm step, and made a short speech, in which he protested complete innocence of the crime. His neck was broken, and he died without a struggle.

The Belief in Deucalion.

The son of Prometheus and King of Thessaly, who, with his wife Pyrrha, was preserved from the Deluge, and re-peopled the world by throwing stones behind them, as directed by the oracle, requires a faith not hardly possible with this age of enlightened civilization, and yet such a belief is as consistent with general principles as the theoretical idea advanced concerning the disposal of the "immense" stock carried by some of our imitators. We take it for granted that merchandise which has been carried over for several years, and has accumulated until it is positively necessary to dispose of, is worthless at any price—even if bought at 7 cents on the dollar. What the people require is seasonable goods at the lowest possible price. A glance at our south show window will convince the passer-by that we are carrying out a system advanced by us several years ago of selling new goods at such prices that even our patrons eagerly await the coming of our weekly sales. The Fall stock will soon arrive and, being in the midst of our Grand Annual Clearance Sale, we will place on our counters the several distinct lines of goods enumerated in appended list next Wednesday, August 11.

Hosts of Veteran Visitors Coming.

All accounts from the Grand Army gathering at San Francisco represent it to be a great and glorious affair—the most imposing demonstration, by far, that the city ever witnessed. It is simply majestic in its proportions, and unequaled in the high enthusiasm that it arouses all along the line. San Francisco has given herself up to the old soldiers; she has capitulated to the Grand Army.

Private advices received here state that Los Angeles, too, must prepare for a great invasion of Grand Army men and their friends on the 16th inst. It is represented by gentlemen just arrived from above that the influx on "Los Angeles Day" will be simply immense. The warm and contagious enthusiasm over their reception here on the part of those comrades who came this way, and the known desire of thousands more to see the southern country, added to the low rate of fare ($10) for the round trip, will, it is confidently claimed, make such a rush for the southern metropolis on that day as we can now have little conception of.

Our people must therefore prepare to have their hospitality taxed to the utmost on the occasion of the presence here of these visiting veterans. Supplies, money and work are the great necessities of the hour. Let them be forthcoming in such abundance as will again do credit to the name of Los Angeles for hospitality.

The impression already made upon the veterans who came this way is thoroughly good. They are loud in their praises of the treatment they received at the hands of our people. They have told the story of Southern California hospitality to their friends, who, too, want to taste it and see us. The enthusiasm is contagious, and scores besides the veterans will be here. The crowd will be large, and preparations should be made on a corresponding scale.

A meeting of the General Committee on Entertainment will be held at Grand Army headquarters to-day, to set the ball in motion. Let it be largely attended. There will be both pleasure and profit in the attentions that Los Angeles may show to the gallant, intelligent and influential body of men that is about coming within her gates. Every friendly courtesy we may show them will be a source of pleasure to both hosts and guests, and the knowledge of our country which our visitors will take away with them will be a good investment for the city, the county and the entire southern country.

Then, let ample preparations be made for the suitable entertainment of our honored guests.

Boss Squire and Boss Flynn.

Another episode in the corrupt politics of New York city is the Squire case. Rollin M. Squire appears to be a "smart politition" of the modern type, who, when he wants a thing, "goes after it" with unscrupulous energy. At least that is the way he went after his confirmation as Commissioner of Public Works. Boss Squire offered a bribe in the shape of a promise of office to contractor Flynn, for a valuable consideration to be given by Boss Flynn. Wherefore Boss Squire has had charges preferred against him by the Commissioner of Accounts, and Mayor Grace, it is said, is preparing other charges of corruption against him. There is a regular "racket" over the developments. Flynn has been expelled from the County Democracy, and Squire has been officially "hung up" by the Mayor, pending the investigation of the charges.

The New York Sun of July 30th states the case as it stood then, and republishes the famous, or infamous, letter of Squire to Flynn. We quote:

Only one man could be found yesterday who disputed the essential genuineness of the letter which the Commissioner of Accounts accuses Commissioner Squire of writing to Maurice B. Flynn, five days before Mayor Edson appointed Squire Commissioner of Public Works. Here is the letter again:

"NEW YORK, Dec. 26, 1884.—Maurice B. Flynn, Esq.: DEAR SIR—In consideration of your securing not less than four County Democracy Aldermen, who shall vote for my confirmation as Commissioner of Public Works, in the event that the Mayor shall send in my name for that office, I hereby agree to place my resignation as Commissioner, in case of my confirmation, in your hands whenever you may demand the same; and further, to make no appointments in said office without your approval; and to make such removals therein as you may suggest and request, and to transact the business of said office as you may direct. Very truly yours, ROLLIN M. SQUIRE."

The date in the letter has apparently been altered from December 27 to December 26, and the concluding words, "and to transact the business of said office as you may direct," are written in cramped letters, for which there is scarcely room enough before the "Very truly yours." They were apparently added as an afterthought, or at the suggestion of somebody after the "Very truly yours" and perhaps the signature had been written. Experts may have a chance to testify whether or not the whole document is in one hand.

For receiving this letter Boss Flynn was "bounced" out of the County Democracy organization. The charges against Squire are the chief topic of conversation among politicians of all classes in New York. Squire is "skeered," but, with the gall characteristic of his class, who make of corruption and theft a profession, he is attempting to put on a bold face and brave it out. The result will show with what success.

The matter is before the grand jury. Judge Cowings, in referring to Squire's case, said in his charge:

"I wish to call your especial attention to a subject now agitating the attention of the public. Grave charges have been made against certain public officials, it being claimed that, from corrupt, wilful and wicked motives, a public office has been handed over to a contractor, this contractor, as is claimed, being the actual head of the office, the other being only in nominal possession. The department, according to common report, has been in the hands of this contractor for some time, and he has had the power to give himself contracts and discharge and appoint men, so that, substantially, the office has been in the hands of a man who has carried it on in such a manner, no doubt antagonistic to the welfare of the city and the taxpayers. The question of the truth or falsity of these charges is for you to pass upon. I cannot. If it is true that this department was turned over, as stated, there has been a most wicked and criminal act committed, which demands prompt action through your hands. Other investigations into charges are being made, but this need not retard you from taking steps. The Mayor's investigation is to determine whether or not removals from office shall be made. Your investigation will be to decide whether or not the criminal law has been violated. If there has been a violation, you must bring the guilty party or parties before this tribunal. If you find these charges of corruption to be well founded, you will then make an investigation as to all concerned in it, for all who may have taken part are equally guilty."

The latest phase of the case is presented in the TIMES dispatches this morning. It appears that the late Hubert O. Thompson got possession of the Squire letter and "gave it away" to Mayor Grace, who appears to have been a very long time in making up his mind to expose the corrupt scheme.

The scoundrel Squire, as shown by his own letter, deliberately sold himself and his office out to contractor Flynn—bound himself hand and foot, for the corrupt consideration of four votes fraudulently obtained by Flynn.

It smacks of the return of the Tweed regime.

MARTINEZ'S FATE.

Further Information as to the Unfortunate Californian.

Ventura Free Press, Aug. 4.]

Jeff. Thompson, who runs the old Mutaw ranch in Lookwood valley, came into town late last night and reported finding the body of an old Californian named Francisco Martinez, on the trail about a quarter of a mile from his (Thompson's) cabin, yesterday morning. Martinez was in Thompson's employ, it seems, and on Monday morning he left the cabin in search of stock. He was mounted upon a saddle mule, and carried with him a Colt's navy revolver, and no anxiety was felt until yesterday, when some boys started out from the cabin and found the body of Martinez upon the trail as above stated. He had received one shot in the pit of the stomach, and his pistol and belt were gone—but the mule was found standing patiently beside the fallen body. Mr. Thompson supposed that the man had accidentally shot himself—for he had not a known enemy in the world—and then, seeking to examine his wound before death, dropped the pistol and belt beside the trail—the mule turning of its own accord and carrying the man homeward until the lifeless body fell from the saddle.

The scene of the tragedy is about sixty miles from town, and Coroner Ley started out early this morning to investigate the affair. He will return on Thursday night, and, we trust, will be able to throw more light upon the case.

STATE AND COAST.

The grapevines around Benicia are bearing heavier this year than for many years past.

Reports from the hop-growing districts say that not more than one-third the usual crop will be gathered this season. But the beer crop will be just as big as ever.

A regiment of Mexican infantry is now engaged in fighting an invasion of grasshoppers in the State of Guerrero. The Two Republics states that the troops are whipping the invaders.

The Modesto Herald puts the wheat crop of Stanislaus county at 4,000,000 bushels. The yield in some localities is not up to that expected, but the quality of the grain is the best in the history of the county.

Solano county bids fair to rival Napa county in the production of blackberries. A gentleman living in the vicinity of Susun now furnishes all that are sold in Dixon, and nothing finer has ever been seen in this market.—[Dixon Tribune.

A new departure has been made by J. S. Buck in the Elsinore pottery business. The services of an artist, Louis Brown by name, have been secured, and the leaves, flowers and wreaths which decorate the vases are taking on life-like tints under the magical influence of pallet and brush. Tiles, jugs and jars are similarly decorated.

J. DeBarth Shorb's Attitude.

Interview in the Alta.]

Reporter—How will your water interests be benefitted in any way by the legislation sought for?

Shorb—In no wise. And I thought this fact was universally known throughout the State. The water I owned at Pasadena is all sold out to those happy people, and their water and land are married beyond all hope of divorce. In the Alhambra Addition tract I own a share of the water stock, which is also tied to the land; and I am the President of this corporation, whose Directors are chosen by the small owners, and here we have the cheapest water rate, I think, in the world. J. Hurbert, who owns some thirty acres, all planted in trees, paid last year only $9 for the water he used in irrigation. On my home place I own the land upon which the water rises, over which it flows and upon which it is used, as my predecessors have before me since the secularization of the Missions. My wife has two interests in lands inherited from her grandfather—one at the west line of the Sierra Rancho, where the Santa Ana river flows into the well-known gorge, and the other in the Santa Ana Rancho as it debouches on the place below—comprising about six hundred acres. Both of these parcels of land are riparian to the stream, and, under the late decision, would be immensely benefited, because no appropriation of water has been made; but I am willing and anxious to give this alleged right to any of the settlements below me, rather than claim a right of pecuniary value, which, in justice, never attached to the land, and which I can not accept as a gift to the detriment of others, even from our Supreme Court. I have nothing more to say on this question.

A Hard Case.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: I want to state a case—a recent fact—and ask a few questions, in the interest of truth and justice: In this county, seven years ago, a man (a citizen, though he cannot read the English language) bought a few acres of land for a home, near an irrigating ditch, but not on the highway. The seller contracted with him for the right of way to the public road, and the buyer enjoyed and used that way for over six years. He understood that it was deeded with his home; but, as he did not think his American neighbor would be guilty of either wrong or negligence, he did not carry his deed to anyone to have it read to him, for a special look-out against harm.

Lately the seller has died; the widow put the property in the hands of a lawyer to settle and sell, and since the sale, this buyer—the owner of his own vines and orange trees, and nice little home, the creation of his own industry—finds himself shut in by the new neighbor—right of way to a public road utterly denied; and he, with his wife and little girls, are compelled to be torn from the home they love, to give up to this rich extortionist, who has bought up all around him, at such nominal price as said person chooses to offer, or pay an enormous price, clear beyond his means for the "right of way" that he supposed secured by his deed—that he had bought once honorably, and used for years! And a lawyer tells him he has no redress!

Question: Are laws designed for the protection of those who need protection, or are they framed in the interest of hawks and vultures? Are there not men who can devise "ways and means" to send somebody to the Legislature who will bring forward measures to secure simple, natural rights in such cases as the above? We have many citizens—and more are coming—who do not read our language, even when they speak it, and must they be exposed to such wrongs? Must we set ourselves before the world as a people who, under color of law, "devour" whomsoever may accidentally fall within reach of our talons? I am only a neighbor to the person being devoured in this case, but my soul is stirred by the wretched laws that cover such wrongs, and compel the wife and little girls to lose their home. Oh, Solon, let thy shadow fall upon us! M. J.

Main Street.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: Will you please oblige some of your subscribers by informing them by what right Main street is cut up and partly-destroyed for public use?

First—Is it in the interest of the Fort-street boom?

Second—Is it to help real estate speculators?

Third—Is it to help the city authorities to get rid of their real estate deals?

We admit, the Council has the right to grant railroad franchises, but these franchises can only be granted through an ordinance duly passed, and, in order to make an ordinance legal it must not conflict with the general laws of the State. Section 459 of the Civil Code provides that railroad companies, when they obtain franchises from the city authorities, must comply with following rules:

1. To construct their tracks on those portions of the street designated in the ordinance, which must be, as nearly as possible, the middle thereof.

2. The company must pave and macadamize the entire track; but particularly the track must be flush with the street and provided with good crossings.

Now how is the Main street double track now constructed?

Answer: If we are not blind, in a ditch about one foot below the grade. Is it another job to have somebody killed? We trust when the grand jury for the July term is called then they will investigate this matter properly.

SUBSCRIBER.

Los Angeles, July 26, 1886.

The Democrats and the Union Soldiers.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: It is horrible! Outrage upon outrage on Union soldiers continue to accumulate! All Union soldiers turned out of the Philadelphia Mint! So says the National Tribune of July 29th.

The way it was done is sickening to read. It is the same old story of Democratic love for the soldier till it gains power, and then woe be to the soldier! Democratic promises like this ain't worth the husks fed to swine.

One Fox was made Superintendent of the Mint, promising to be a friend to the Union soldier. Immediately he turned out the very best of them.

The Veteran Rights Union protested against it, and this wily Fox promised not to do it any more. Now, what next? In ten days from this promise he discharged every remaining Union soldier. Any fox will promise not to disturb the chicken roost, and will break his promise the first night. A Democratic fox follows the instincts of the real animal. Not a Republican chicken remains on that roost.

Will not voters open their eyes to see the disloyal spirit prevailing in this Democratic administration?

But nothing better can be expected, since its very existence is nurtured by the fraud that gave it a being. VET.

A Novel Ceremony With Testimonials, Etc.

At the Opera Hall, in this city, on Sunday afternoon, July 18, 1886, Dr. A. P. Truesdell presented diplomas to his first class in Metaphysical Science, after which the Secretary received, from patients present, the following testimonials:

William A. Buster, corner of Pine and Charity streets, 56 years of age, given up by his physicians, vomiting almost constantly, said to be suffering from cancer of the stomach, was treated by the doctor once only, four weeks ago, when the vomiting ceased. Ate only with a spoon. Can now eat almost anything; is confident of recovery.

Mr. Strohm of Flower street, suffering with abscess of liver for five weeks, given up by five physicians, was relieved of all pain by one treatment from Dr. Truesdell. Next day walked to Opera Hall, over twelve blocks, for treatment, having slept well. Some nights previous, not having closed his eyes at all. Feels perfectly confident of restoration to health. Walked fifty miles on the 19th inst.

Mrs. M. J. Kessler, Los Angeles, 124 Hewitt street, cured of rheumatism in hips by one treatment from the doctor. Was subject to fits and dyspepsia ever since childhood. Well next day after receiving one treatment from Mrs. Hill. Can eat anything.

Mrs. J. B. Churchill, 18 Walnut avenue, Los Angeles, deaf 40 years from scarlet fever, hearing entirely gone from one ear, restored by one of the students so that she can hear quite distinctly.

Mrs. T. M. Adams, Fourth street between Fort and Spring, M. E. revival preacher for twenty years, suffered for ten years with floating kidney, compelled to take morphine for years to alleviate pain. Had prayed and struggled to be delivered from taking the drug, fearing it might destroy her soul; is willing to speak of it publicly, that others may find the relief which has been granted her. Dr. Truesdell saw her leaving the hall, being too weary to sit longer. He said: "There's a sister who is suffering, and she is filled with the Holy Ghost! Come back! God has something for you!" He laid his hands on her, and the spirit came with power. The kidney was restored to its place, the brain relieved at once and the desire for morphine was gone, and she has not again used it. She warned the audience with great earnestness "to beware how they defiled that this was the power of God." She can now, after all these years of suffering, digest her food and sleep as when a child.

Mrs. John Sutherland, 122 Fifth street, Los Angeles, 40 years of age, born deaf in right ear, received one treatment from the doctor and two from Mrs. Hill. Can now hear sounds, music, etc.

J. H. Wells had severe fever and chills, with deathly sickness at stomach and faintness; had difficulty in getting to the office; was relieved in about fifteen minutes, went home by himself; next day was as well as ever.

J. W. Turner, Los Angeles, lung trouble over five years; never any relief from other doctors; received four or five treatments from Dr. Truesdell about five weeks ago; was hardly able to get around before; now able to do anything. Pain constantly bad re in the chest; now none, only a slight cough left.

Lady with granulated eyelids of six months standing cured by one treatment from the doctor. Severe neuralgia in head, for three years, entirely cured in four or five treatments by two of the students.

F. A. LOW, Secretary Investigating Committee.

We, the graduating class referred to above, take this opportunity of informing the public, for the benefit of the sick and the cause of Christian science, that we, too, have been successful in relieving pain and curing disease by the soul healing power, as most faithfully taught us by Dr. A. P Truesdell, among which diseases we mention deafness, rheumatism, neuralgia, asthma, dyspepsia, constipation, paralysis, chronic and acute inflammation, pleurisy, catarrh, morphine eating, the tobacco habit, etc.

E. S. Hill, S. F. Binkley, Sue McCullough, Flora V. Case, O. J. De Puy, L. M. Stanway, Ellen A. Dow, J. M. De Puy.

Persons desiring to learn the Science of Metaphysical Healing will apply for terms to Dr. Truesdell at the hall, or at Nos. 6 and 7 Forster Block, 28 S. Main street.

PASADENA.

Another Poisoning Case—Postoffice Business, Etc.

Correspondence of the Times.]

PASADENA, Aug. 6.—The statement was made in this column yesterday that a new business house is to be built on the corner of Fair Oaks and Dayton. It will be put up by H. J. Holmes, and is to be 24x45, two stories high. Another business building on Fair Oaks, north of the Pasadena House, in course of erection by Mr. Holbrook, will probably be opened as a grocery, making seven in town.

J. C. Winslow, formerly of Winslow & Gould, of Los Angeles, has opened a law office in the Ward Bros. block.

In one of the ground floor rooms of the new Exchange block E. C. Webster, one of the owners of the building, is preparing to fit up an office that for elegance and convenience will probably discount anything in the county.

Prof. M. N. Parker, head of the Sierre Madre College, will open an academy in Pasadena about the first of next month. Until better quarters are provided he will probably use Williams's little hall.

C. T. Hopkins offers all his property at Ollieswood for sale, and announces his intention of removing elsewhere.

On the back cover of the latest Raymond & Whitcomb excursion circulars received from Boston, appears a beautifully executed cut of the Raymond Hotel.

Mr. Barber, who recently bought ten acres on Los Robles avenue, is building upon the property.

M. H. Wait is preparing to build a $2500 dwelling on Niagara, below Center.

Dr. Congar's proposed new dwelling on Colorado, will be a gem. Its cost will be between $4000 and $5000. His present house will be removed to the lower ground eastward.

The proposed visit of G. A. R. comrades to Los Angeles on the 16th will probably be extended to Pasadena on the day following, per invitation of our citizens. A meeting to consider ways and means of entertaining the vets will be held at Williams Hall, to-morrow at 3 p. m. Refreshments, short addresses, a drive about town, etc., are suggested for the programme.

Mrs. Dr. Michener is preparing to go to Paris for the purpose of spending a year or longer at that art center in the study of painting. She will leave about September 1st.

A laborer named James Martin took a heavy dose of morphine at the Pasadena House, last night, to quiet his nerves after a debauch. If Dr. Michener's medicines had been less efficacious the poor fellow's quietus would have been a fatal one.

Mrs. Frank Kasson, who was poisoned, yesterday, from the effects of eating canned oysters, is still very ill, but she will recover. Her husband was also affected by eating the oysters, but not so severely.

News comes up from Monrovia that the Southern Pacific surveyors have been running a grade line from Shorb's right through the town. Lot holders rejoice thereat, but can't explain the true inwardness of the move.

During the quarter ending June 30th, the Pasadena Postoffice received an income of $1,351.94 from the sale of stamps and box rents. The largest week's sale of money orders was $2,000.

City Clerk Sawtelle began the assessment of Pasadena property to-day, for the purposes of municipal taxation. He's in for a big job.

The Los Angeles House is moving successfully towards its new foundation. It is said to be the largest building ever moved in the county. A novel sight is the presence of Mrs. Means (wife of the mover), as boss of the job. She seems to understand her business, too.

C. H. Kilgore will soon move his livery stable a short distance westward on Union street, and it is not improbable that Mrs. White, the photographer, will put up a building on the present site of the stable.

WESTMINSTER.

PROFITABLE GUMS—GENERAL CROP PROSPECTS.

Correspondence of the TIMES.]

WESTMINSTER, Aug. 6.—J. B. Moulin has been cutting down many gum trees for fuel. He averages half a cord per tree. When set out for forest culture, eight feet apart, there are 680 trees to the acre. Taking Mr. Moulin's average, which is under that given by other parties, there would be 340 cords to the acre when trees are eight years old. This, at $5 per cord, would bring $1700 per acre, and if one half, or even a larger proportion be allowed for expenses and cutting, etc., there remains a fine return, particularly for that which needs no care whatever after the second year, and springs up again after being cut.

Daniel Brown reports a profit of over $200 from less than an acre of watermelons. W. A. Patterson follows close behind him, with a smaller patch, netting nearly $200.

A large area is being, or will be, planted in potatoes; many farmers have finished planting while others are irrigating and plowing preparatory to planting. Some of the peat land here yields 250 to 300 sacks of potatoes to the acre. When they are sacked and standing on the ground it is impossible to drive between the sacks.

Corn is filling out well; the fields are all healthy and the crop will be a good one. Barley hay is about all baled, but alfalfa is growing rapidly and has to be cut frequently, some pieces have already been cut four times, and in some instances the last cutting yielded two and a half to three tons per acre.

Apples are commencing to ripen, but are fully a month later than last year. All fruit crops are short.

Anaheim Landing is at present a lively camp. Mrs. Scott, of Anaheim, leased the old warehouse, and has fitted it up as a camp life hotel, dividing it up into rooms and making quite a comfortable retreat. Persons so inclined can have all the pleasures of camp life without the trouble of concocting food supplies for the inner man. There are also about twenty tents there, occupied by Anaheim families. Editor Melrose wends his way down there Saturdays, and hopes the change will coax a little flesh onto his bony frame. The boating and fishing are excellent, as is the bathing.

The shriek of the iron horse and rumble of long trains are not yet heard. "Teams and wagons are to be brought from a point near Daggett very soon, when operations will be rushed to completion," so says the superintendent. They will have to push hard to carry out their agreements with parties in the Santa Ana cañon and have the road completed through the cañon early in September.

Sampson Edwards has completed extensive improvements on his house, and gone, with his wife, to San Francisco, to attend the G. A. R. Encampment. Thence they go East for a three months' visit.

Miss Mattie McCoy has improved the appearance of her drug store by painting it.

Rev. Mr. Goodsell, of the Congregational Church, has moved into the Willey House.

D. W. Lawton has moved into the Dr. McCoy house.

T. C. Niell and family have come down from the mountains, and occupy the Parker House.

Mr. Foster and family, from San Gabriel, occupy the McPherson house.

So far as is known, there is not an unoccupied house here.

Mrs. Lyman, of Arrowhead Springs Hotel, is spending a short time at her old home here.

Mr. Taylor and Miss Finley have been engaged to teach the Westminster school the coming year. School will begin in about two weeks. A neat addition has been built on the Las Bolsas school, and Mr. Morten engaged as teacher.

David Rogers has sold eighteen acres to Abraham Buzza, and has arranged to buy eighty acres of the Land Company. There is inquiry for land, and other sales will soon be effected.

Iron Sulphur Springs.

Thirteen miles' drive east, near the ostrich farm; pleasant health and pleasure resort, located on high mesa land. Hot mineral baths, equal to Hot Springs of Arkansas. Mineral waters remarkable for cure of rheumatism, diseases of stomach, kidneys, skin and nervous system. Good hotel, pleasant grounds. Two trains daily on Santa Ana Railroad; $1.25 round trip. Daily mail and telephone.

Running sixteen hours a day to accommodate the great rush and increasing beats No. 9 Aliso street.

The Plating and Stencil Works, Recently burned out, are now open for business at No. 426 First street, below Alameda.

The beverage for the weak and strong sick and healthy, Ghirardelli's soluble cocoa.

Skillful, reliable and thoroughly scientific dyers at the Great American Dye House, No. 9 Aliso street.

Given Away.

The Gift Cigar Store, corner First and Spring streets, gives away during the month of August One Hundred Dollars in prizes to their customers.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE TIMES,
LOS ANGELES, Friday, August 6.

Advices from San Francisco to-day report Wheat quiet and unchanged, and Barley fairly active, Feed selling at 80 and 85 cents. At Chicago both Wheat and Barley are firmer. At Liverpool an improvement in the demand for wheat is noted. In this city Wheat and Barley continue, quiet and unchanged.

Potatoes are becoming scarcer for the good varieties, and a further advance in prices occurred to-day.

The legal limit of the canning season on the Columbia river closed last Saturday night. The pack on that river is estimated at from 400,000 to 450,000 cases, which means a shortage of from 75,000 to 125,000 cases, as compared with last year.

For nearly a week the price of Silver at London has been daily cabled at 42d for British standard ounce of 925 fine. The equivalent of this price in American money for 1,000 fine, reckoning the pound sterling at $4 86 65, is 92.1c, or 85.2c for the English ounce 925 fine, or 82.9c for the United States Mint ounce 900 fine. It makes the price of the 412½ grain dollar 71.2c. Such prices have not been known before during the present century. In the past fifteen years, the American Silver miner has seen the value of his product recede from $1.30 per ounce to 92c per ounce. The New York price to-day is 91¼c, but this is based on exchange at $4 87. A difference of 38c per ounce is an important item to Silver miners, and it is no wonder they are kicking against what seems to be a cruel fate. We know that some good Silver deposits are not worked on account of the low price, and it is feared that other similar claims will be closed. Threats of this kind are already uttered at the great Silver producing centers in Utah, Colorado and Montana.—[San Francisco Bulletin.

Stocks and Bonds.

By Telegraph to The Times.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—Government bonds dull, lower.

The bullish feeling in stocks was very pronounced this morning, and there was a rush to buy stock and over one-half of the day's business was transacted in the early hour, quotations advancing throughout the list. There was no news of any importance, but in early dealings there was active trading in Union Pacific, which rose 1 per cent. This was chiefly due to the adjournment of Congress, which relieves all apprehension of adverse legislation. Although buying to-day was general, the most pronounced movements were in specialties, and St. Louis and San Francisco stocks were prominent for advances made. Louisville and Chattanooga and Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati and Indianapolis were also noticeable for strength. Opening prices were almost invariably higher. Western Union being the only noticeable exception, with a decline of ¼ per cent. The advances ranged from ¼ to ⅝ per cent., the latter in Wabash preferred. After a slight period of hesitancy the market became extremely active and strong throughout the list. The activity, however, ended with the first hour, as did also advances, except for specialties. The usual quiet and steady market succeeded, which continued until the close of business.

Money on call easy, ranging from 2½ to 4 per cent., and closing at 2 per cent. asked. Prime paper, 4@5.

Sterling exchange, dull, weak; $4 84½ for 60-day bills, $4 85, demand.

Two Friends Meet.

"Hello! Old fellow! What have you been doing to yourself? You look like a subject for the undertaker," exclaimed the man on the right.

"I have been taking mercury and potash mixtures until they have nearly ruined me," squeaked the old man on crutches.

"And I," said the other, "have been taking the genuine Swift's Specific, which has built me up from the first dose."

Swift's Specific

Is Nature's own remedy, made from roots gathered from the forests of Georgia. The method by which it is made was obtained by a half-breed from the Creek Indians, who inhabited a certain portion of Georgia, which was communicated to one of the early settlers, and thus the formula has been handed down to the present day. The demand has been increasing until a $100,000 laboratory is now necessary to supply the trade. A foreign demand has been created, and enlarged facilities will be necessary to meet it. This great

THEY'VE GOT TO.

Judge Brunson Says the supervisors Must Fix Water Rates.

The important Anaheim water case, doubly interesting in view of the special session agitation, made itself heard from again yesterday.

May 7th, last, W. B. McFadden and twenty-five other well-known citizens of the Santa Ana valley filed with the Board of Supervisors an important petition. It set forth that the Anaheim Union Water Company is an appropriator of water for sale, rental and distribution, other than in any city, city-and-county, or town; "that the rates to be collected for the sale, rental or distribution of the water supplied by said water company, in said county as aforesaid, have not been fixed by your honorable Board, under, or since the passage of, the act of the Legislature of said State, entitled 'An act to regulate and control the sale, rental or distribution of appropriated water in this State, etc.'" Judgment was also given in favor of the plaintiffs for their costs, $23.10.

THE NURSERYMEN.

They Organize an Association for Southern California.

The nurserymen of Southern California effected an organization yesterday, with headquarters at Los Angeles. Permanent officers were elected as follows: President, Thos. A. Garey, of Los Angeles; Vice President, Geo. W. Ford, of Santa Ana; Secretary, Byron O. Clark, of Pasadena; Treasurer, J. S. Howland, of Pomona. Executive Committee—Milton Thomas, of Los Angeles; Andrew Snyder, of Los Angeles; T. S. Ingham, of San Bernardino; L. H. Michenor, of Pasadena; Thos. A. Garey, of Los Angeles.

A committee on by-laws was appointed. A resolution inviting the State Inspector of Insect Pests to visit Southern California and make a thorough official inspection of all nursery stock in the district was passed.

A committee on nomenclature was appointed.

The district comprises the counties of Los Angeles, San Bernardino, San Diego, Santa Barbara and Ventura. A representative body of nurserymen was present at the meeting, and good results to nurserymen and orchardists are anticipated.

A BRUTE.

A Street-car Driver Who Needs Looking After.

The young man who drove car No. 6 on the Main street and Agricultural Park railroad yesterday morning treated his horse in a most brutal manner. He lashed the animal until the blood exuded from its side and hip, and a good deal of the whipping was done without shadow of excuse. Whether the horse was walking, trotting or galloping made little difference; he seemed to lash it for the fun of the thing. When remonstrated with by a passenger he was insolent and abusive. A street car company makes a mistake if it keeps such a man in its employ after finding him out, for he injures the stock and disgusts the passengers.

A POOR BARGAIN.

He'd Have Done Better to Buy the Horses.

Jesus Gusola, who walked off with a picket rope to which was attached Judge Austin's mare, pleaded guilty in Judge Brunson's court Wednesday, and was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary at Folsom. Yesterday a charge was preferred against him for stealing McWade's horse, to which he also pleaded guilty, and for which he was given two years at San Quentin, to take effect at the expiration of the former sentence, making in all seven years to pay for two horses that he won't get.

GOOD GRANITE.

Fine Building Stone Accessible by Los Angeles.

Four or more quarries of granite on the line of the San Gabriel Valley Railroad now contribute this fine building stone to the resources of architects and builders of our city, in the handsome new business blocks and private residences which commercial wants, enterprise and accumulated wealth find expression in. The elegant protecting walls around the property of A. E. Pomeroy, on Fifth street and Grand avenue; the Bryson Block and other structures, are of the fine granite from Santa Anita cañon and Sierra Madre tract.

A FEARFUL FALL.

A House-Painter's Remarkable Escape from Death.

John Dufton, of the firm of Dufton & Son, painters, had a very close call yesterday noon. He was employed in painting the front of the new "lawyers' block," on Temple street, and standing on a board about 25 feet from the ground. The ladder, upon which one end of the board rested, slipped, and Mr. Dufton fell to the ground, striking on his back. By marvelous luck his spine was not broken, and, though he is badly bruised, it is believed that he is not dangerously injured internally. He is at his father's home, No. 15 Seventh street.

MORE CARRIERS.

Important Improvements to the Free Delivery System.

Thanks to the persistent and intelligent nudgings of Postmaster J. W. Green, the Postoffice Department is coming to an approximate appreciation of some of the needs of the service in this marvelously-growing city. Some months ago Mr. Green made a very concise and incisive showing of the utter inadequacy of the force of carriers allotted us to cover such an enormous area. Big bodies are characterized by slowness of movement, but the Department is at last getting around to us. It has increased the force by four new carriers, so that the present force is 14 carriers and one collector. The new men are Joe Farrell, Fred Goodhue, Frank Hickam and O. L. Robertson; their service dates from Aug. 1.

Thus reinforced, the carrier service of the city will be at once enlarged and improved. Instead of touching only the principal streets of East Los Angeles, the mounted carrier detailed to that district will cover the whole big territory—except, probably, the County Hospital, which it would be decidedly unreasonable to expect him to visit.

Another mounted carrier will deliver out Temple street as far as the cable road engine-house, and to all the large and hitherto neglected territory lying west of Pearl and Figueroa, from Tempis to Washington.

Another mounted carrier will go down San Pedro street, and cover the territory as far as Washington, between San Pedro, Washington and Adams streets.

These are important changes—improvements which will be appreciated.

A WHAT-IS-IT.

A Curious Vegetable Freak from the Tejunga.

A. F. Kercheval brought to the TIMES office, a couple of days ago, a curious what-is-it of the vegetable kingdom. The stalk is about 40 inches long, and at the base is the diameter of a pencil. From this, however, it flares out all the rest of its length, growing constantly wider, until at the top it is a contorted blade an eighth of an inch thick, and eight inches wide. At intervals along this curious stalk are long filiform branches, from two to three feet long, and bare and slender as a cord. The plant is an uncanny-looking and remarkable one. The agricultural editor, the hoss editor, the religious editor and the fighting editor all "gave it up." Then Prof. J. C. Oliver, an enthusiastic botanist, came to the rescue, and stated that it was a Stephenomeria paniculata. That made everyone happy. They were glad to understand the matter. Mr. Kercheval found the plant in the Tejunga wash, where he saw several more like it.

Court Notes.

Judge Brunson has given defendant in Sepulveda vs. Rimpau, ten days further time to plead; and sustained the demurrer in Page vs. Shore.

Informations were filed before Judge Cheney yesterday, charging C. G. Simmons with embezzlement; Ira B. Kilgore, murder; Edward W. Jones, mingling poison with food; Mrs. L. Britton, assault with a deadly weapon; Gee Ah Sue, burglary.

Albert Smith was up before Justice Ranney, yesterday, charged with complicity in the brutal assault upon a Chinaman, for which Dan Sheeley was recently fined $100. It was shown that while Smith was along with Sheeley and George Wilson, the two who committed the assault, he took no part in the violence, but rather dissuaded his companions from their brutality. He was acquitted.

Mrs. Pandila Hunter, charged with disturbing the peace of a female neighbor, was tried before Justice Ranney, yesterday, and acquitted.

All diseases of the head, throat and chest, treated by his new and improved system of Medicated Inhalation, which carries the remedies directly to the diseased parts, thereby effecting cures in many of the so-called incurable cases, the greater part of whom had not the slightest idea of ever being cured.

About 75,000 Cases Treated During the Last Nineteen Years.

Our Mode of Curing Catarrh.

The applications are made to reach every part of the diseased surface in the most direct and positive manner; instantaneously penetrating every cell and cavity of the head communicating with the nostrils. In this manner we have treated the most obstinate cases of catarrh with complete success, after all other attempts have failed. We care not how long the disease may have continued, or from what cause it did arise. Every case of catarrh is curable.

The following are the distinguishing features of our mode of treatment:

1. A single application gives immediate comfort, and relieves at once the most distressing and painful symptoms.

2. The hardened secretions are softened and removed, causing the greatest amount of relief to the sufferer.

3. The ulcerated surface is deodorized, every unpleasant smell is removed, and the breath is restored to its natural sweetness and purity.

4. The poisonous action of the disease upon the throat is neutralized and arrested, threatened consumption averted, and last of all a complete and radical cure is fully established.

5. The applications employed can be made at home with perfect success and without interfering with diet or business.

6. In all cases of catarrh, where the system suffers from the deleterious effects of scrofula or other vitiated condition of the blood, the local treatment is invariably conjoined with constitutional remedies.
